1. Background

The Swiss Tourism for Sustainable Development (ST4SD) project is funded by The Swiss State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO) for a duration of four years, from April 2023 to March 2027, with implementation led by HELVETAS Swiss Intercooperation in Vietnam (Helvetas Vietnam) as the Lead Implementing Agency, and Center for Rural Economy Development (CRED) as the Consortium Partner.

The main objective of the ST4SD project is to contribute to a more sustainable and inclusive tourism sector in Vietnam. In the long term, the project aims to support the creation of new livelihoods and promote sustainable economic development in the country. This overarching objective will be achieved by focusing on three key outcomes:

- Outcome 1 (macro level): Enhancing sustainable tourism development by ensuring that national and subnational action plans, master plans, and relevant policies include necessary actions. This includes facilitating the decision-making and implementation processes.

- Outcome 2 (meso level): Strengthening Vietnamese training institutions to provide quality training and develop skills and expertise in sustainable tourism. The project will assist in the selection and enhancement of these institutions.
- Outcome 3 (meso and micro level): Encouraging tourism destinations and companies to adopt more sustainable practices in their operations and investments. This outcome aims to make both the destinations and the companies more environmentally and socially responsible.

ST4SD is working in three target provinces: Quang Nam, Ha Giang and Dong Thap, with the aim of supporting provincial strategy development for sustainable tourism.

Dong Thap currently has low levels of tourism activity, with national tourism from Ho Chi Minh city (as a loop back to the city) and some international tourism from Ho Chi Minh city through to Cambodia. Dong Thap is known for nature and 'eco-tourism', with the provincial slogan 'Pure as a Lotus' reflecting the perception and image upon which tourism is developed.

Two sites with currently low arrival numbers and limited spend have been identified which are in line with this provincial image; Sadec flower city and Tram Chim National Park. Both are seen as having unmet potential, which must be qualified (and quantified), but detailed information regarding the sites and tourist perceptions and requirements is needed for ST4SD to develop strategies for the two attractions, in collaboration with Swiss expert partners HSLU.

A national consultant is required to provide this necessary qualitative and quantitative data to enable the project to support the province in planning for sustainable tourism.
