PROJECT ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

LOGICAL FRAMEWORK

EXPECTED RESULTS

LANDA member organisations and CMCs are resourced to support marginalised communities to claim their land and forest resource rights and to effectively participate in land governance processes.

~10,000 EMs (40% women) will have increased knowledge & are confident to raise their voices and claim their rights

2 POLICY BRIEFS & 6 CASE STUDIES

in protecting land and forest resource rights and governance of EMs conducted

80% LANDA MEMBERS & 80% CMCS

have reportedly increased capacity in dealing with EMs' land and forest rights-related issues, and policy advocacy

INDICATORS FOR OUTPUT 1

LANDA's member organisations and CMCs dispose of an adapted toolkit on land and forest resource rights of EMs.

Structure and composition of the toolkit developed and agreed by EMs, CMC, CBOs and LANDA members (Year 1)

16 LANDA member organisations, 3 well-known policy makers and researchers and 8 CMCs, 3 DoNREs are familiar with the toolkit (Year 2)

10,000 EMs (at least 40% women) are aware of the toolkit on land and forest resource rights (Year 1, 2, 3)

INDICATORS FOR OUTPUT 2

LANDA member organisations and CMCs have strengthened capacities to support EMs to effectively claim their land and forest resource rights.

Capacity gaps of LANDA members, LAs and CSOs are identified/prioritized (Year 1)

40 representatives of LANDA members have been trained on the prioritised topics (Year 2, 3)

150 key district/commune & community representatives (40% women) have been trained and coached by LANDA members (Year 2,3).

9 small grant initiatives (Year 2, 3).

INDICATORS FOR OUTPUT 3

LANDA member organisations and CMCs contribute to the formulation and monitoring of land and forest resource rights and related policy implementation.

→ 6 piloting cases on land and forest resource rights of EMs documented by LANDA member organisations and CMCs (Year 2, 3).

→ 8 multi-stakeholder dialogues conducted, 320 key reps of related gov. & non-gov agencies & local communities (40% women)

→ 2 policy briefs are presented for consideration in policy making (Year 2, 3).

INDICATORS FOR OUTPUT 4

Access to land and forest resource rights-related information of local EMs is improved.

1 e-platform adapted to local contexts on land and forest resource rights is operational (Year1,2 3).

8 campaigns on land related rights are successfully organised (Year 3).

1000 visualized posters, booklets & multimedia products on land-related information from 6 best practices are distributed (Year1,2 3).
